HE HAD ROUGHT A RANCH

Local Victims Finally Found Him in Washington Territory.

WHATCOM, Wash., May 4. Banks, a young prospec a New York syndicate, the of which includes J. P. of Staten Island; M. E. Graves, had been in the Atiln district. d ore These he carried back Tork and interested Peter A.

porty and Banks was furnished sight drafts of $750 each and set to the amount of $25,000. With he was to begin develops then came to this State and inta a ranch ten miles from here. Last week, Attorney Hendricks and T. C. Laster came on from New York sewer unexpectedly to see Banks and te personally inspect the "Lucky Jim" ledge. They could not find it. They traces Banks to this city and found him down with his young wife on a purchased with the New York capital. His arrest followed yesterday. Banks told several stories. His first was that he had tearned that some one had jumped his claim. He now says the claim is all right, that he has the money Banks admits that he is wanted in British Columbia for cattle stealing, but says the charge is trumped up to detain him as witness in a criminal case against his father. He has a very frank and honest appearance and honest appearance.

It is not known how much he has realized on the "Lucky Jim" over and above the amount of the two $750 drafts.

Famous Song Successes.

CHARLES N. HAIGHT. Here is the most remarkable list of song successes ever written by any one song writer: "The Volunteer Organist," "Oh, Mr. Austin!" "When You Know the "Oh, Mr. Austin!" "When You Know the Girl You Love Loves You," "The Church Acrors the Way," "Oh, What a Beautiful Ocean," "Old Jim's Xmas Hymn," "Maggie Maguire," "The Mother of the Girl I wore," "Take Back the Engagement Ring," "She's More to Be Pitied Than Censured" and "The Sermon Deacon Vandewater Preached."

They were written and composed by William B. Gray, whose latest success, "Just When I Needed You Most," will be issued as a separate supplement with next Sunday's World.

next Sunday's World.

News spreads rapidly among professional singers. They are always on the lookout for new songs that are good. Although Gray's latest song was completed hardly a week ago, it is being sung in many places, and the singers all report its immense success.

Following is a list of some of those most prominent in vaudeville who are singing it:

inging it: Charles Kent, of Primrose & Dock-Charles Kent, of Primrose & Dock-stader's minstrels; Charles Falke, song Ellustrator; Winifred Stewart, female baritone; John P. Curran, of Ward & Curran; Kitty Gilmore, of Gilmore & Maynard, with "Hustler" Company; Charles N. Haight at Star Theatre last Sunday night and at the Devey Theatre next Sunday, and Ola Hood at the Novelty Theatre in Brooklyn this week.

Mr. Spenser Keity has made a special bit with this song at Proctor's Twenty-third Street Theatre, where he is single-like this week.
